MISSOULA--

Members of "danceMontana," the state's first professional dance company, will present a free public concert at the University of Montana in Missoula on Wednesday, Dec. 10.

The dance concert will be at 8 p.m. Dec. 10 in the University Center Ballroom.

Works to be presented by the seven-member dance company will include "Simmer," by Jeff Slayton of the Viola Farber Company in New York, who choreographed the piece specifically for "danceMontana." Also to be performed is "End of the Trail" by Bill Evans, who is a visiting member of the modern dance faculty at the University of Utah. Evans performed in Missoula and held dance classes for "danceMontana" members last summer.

The dance concert will also feature pieces choreographed by "danceMontana" members.

The ASUM Program Council is sponsoring the Dec. 10 program.

Original members of "danceMontana" who are continuing to perform with the group include Kata Langworthy, managing director of the organization, who is from the midwest; Connie Bess Snyder, Billings; Ray Spooner, Conrad, and Catherine Paine, who is from the Washington, D.C., area.

Members of "danceMontana" who began performing with the group this year include Robert G. Remley, San Jose, Calif.; Janet Lott, Valencia, Calif., and Bess Pilcher, Salt Lake City, Utah.

"DanceMontana" is supported in part by the Montana Arts Council, a state agency. The dance group was established in October 1974 to serve all communities in the state.
